Henry's letter about American Airlines' Bistro service (Feb. 25). On an 8 A.M. American Airlines flight Feb. 8 from Hartford, Conn., to Austin, Tex., with a stopover in Chicago, there was neither food nor Bistro service. Upon check-in at Hartford I was told there would be breakfast. Beverage service was available but no food, not even a pretzel, from Hartford to Chicago. The flight attendants suggested that I deplane in Chicago and purchase food for the Austin leg. I decided to wait for a very late Mexican lunch in Austin.	False		1996-04-29	TX 4-211-539
